FLOATING HOLIDAYS

Each full-time employee receives 2 floating holidays per year to be used for:

- Religious observances not on the official calendar
- Personal cultural celebrations
- Additional personal time off

Floating holidays must be:

- Scheduled in advance with manager approval
- Used by December 31 of each year
- Not carried over to the following year

ESSENTIAL OPERATIONS

Certain departments maintain limited operations on holidays:

- IT Support: On-call rotation
- Security: Full staffing
- Customer Support: Limited hours based on service level agreements
- Manufacturing: Per production schedule

Employees in essential operations who work on holidays receive:

- Holiday pay at 1.5 times regular rate
- Alternative day off within the same pay period
- Premium holiday bonus of $100 per holiday worked

HOLIDAY PAY POLICY

Full-Time Employees

- Receive holiday pay for all official holidays
- Holiday pay is based on regular hourly rate or salary
- No deduction from PTO balance for holidays

Part-Time Employees

- Receive holiday pay pro-rated based on average hours worked
- Must have worked at least 1,000 hours in previous year

Temporary/Contract Employees

- Not eligible for holiday pay unless specified in contract

SCHEDULING AROUND HOLIDAYS

Time Off Requests

- Holiday time off requests should be submitted 2 weeks in advance
- Manager approval required for extended holiday periods
- Department coverage must be maintained

Business Travel

- Avoid scheduling business travel on official holidays when possible
- Travel on holidays requires executive approval

REMEMBER TO SCHEDULE

Employees are reminded to:

- Submit holiday time off requests in advance
- Plan work around holiday closures
- Set appropriate out-of-office notifications
- Coordinate with team members for coverage
- Complete critical work before holiday periods
